

MEETING OF THE NATIONAL GRANGE

Encouraging Report by Aaron Jones, of Indiana.

BIG SAVING IN INSURANCE RATES

A Memorial Asking That Congress Make Thorough Investigation of the Subject of Government Expenditures and That the Same Be Removed from Partisan Politics.

Harrisburg, Nov. 16.—At this morning's session of the National Grange, Aaron Jones, of Indiana, reported that the grange fire insurance companies of that state are now carrying forty million dollars' worth of property, with a saving to the grange members of fifty per centum.

The report of the transportation committee carried with it several resolutions, among them one appointing a field committee of information, to be composed of one member from each state of the union, whose duty it shall be to collect data on questions of agricultural needs in the transportation and otherwise, and forward same to the "statistical bureau" at Washington (also created by the resolution of the committee). The duty of the statistical bureau shall be to codify data received, assist the grange legislative committee in its work before congress, and transmit information to Patrons of Husbandry throughout the land. A further resolution proposed a memorial to congress asking for a thorough investigation of the subjects of revenue and governmental expenditures and for law which will remove the same from partisan politics.

The National Grange sessions this afternoon and evening were taken up by the election of officers for 1898. Officers were elected as follows:

Worthy master, Aaron Jones, Indiana; overseer, O. H. Hale, New York; lecturer, Alpha Messer, Vermont; steward, John T. Cox, New Jersey; assistant steward, J. A. Newcomb, Colorado; chaplain, S. O. Brown, Connecticut; treasurer, Mrs. Eva McDowell, Ohio; secretary, John Trimble, Washington; gate keeper, A. D. Judson, Iowa; cores, Mrs. Lena M. Messick, Delaware; pomona, Mrs. Sarah G. Bald, Minnesota; flora, Mrs. E. L. A. Wight, Maine; lady assistant, Mrs. Amanda M. Horton, Michigan.

Executive committee, N. J. Bachelder, New Hampshire (re-elected); J. J. Woodman, Michigan (re-elected). Other members of the committee hold over.

An assembly of the priests of democracy was called after the closing of the election and G. A. Bowen was chosen high priest.

Committees were appointed to escort United States Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and State Secretary of Agriculture Edge before the grange tomorrow afternoon, when Secretary Wilson will make an address.

JUDGE MANSFIELD'S SUIT

Causes the Arrest of V. O. Mervine for Slander.

Stroudsburg, Nov. 16.—A sensation was sprung here yesterday when Judge Barnett Mansfield, the well-known Democratic leader, filed a capias in slander against ex-County Chairman Vincent O. Mervine, alleging $25,000 damages. The capias was at once issued for Mervine's arrest.

Judge Mansfield claims that Mervine started a report that Mansfield with others was bought up for $7,000 at the trial of Kearney and Conboy, the two highwaymen now in the county jail serving a sentence of one year each.

Mervine, former station agent at Henryville, this county, a short time ago while Sayre was returning to his home from the depot. The men were found guilty and Sayre had his mind and is now in an insane asylum.

It was claimed at the time by the friends of Sayre that the sentence given to the two men was light. At the late election Associate Judge Mansfield was his party candidate and resulted in the election of Theodore Y. Hoffman, the Republican candidate. Ex-County Treasurer Mervine, who is also a Democrat, took an active part in the fight against Judge Mansfield. Mansfield's defeat was wholly unexpected, and was a great surprise to Republicans and Democrats alike.

Judge Mansfield, the defeated candidate, is one of the best-known Democratic politicians in the county. He was county chairman for a number of years and during the past five years has been associate judge of Monroe county.

PRETTY POLL AS A FIRE ALARM.

Parrot Saves Its Owner's Family from a Horrible Fate.

Media, Pa., Nov. 16.—The loud screeching of the family parrot of Frederick Mahla, of Leoni, when it saw the store and dwelling of its master on fire early yesterday morning doubtless saved the inmates of the house from perishing in the flames.

A fire started in the basement and reached the fourth floor, when Mr. Mahla was awakened by the distressed cawing of the parrot. He hastily summoned his family, and they got safely out, but not a minute too soon, as shortly afterward all means of retreat from the upper floor would have been cut off. The parrot and its cage, which were taken out as soon as the alarm was given, were among the few things saved in the building. All the store goods and household furniture were destroyed, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars.

DUNLEAVY NEVER WORKS.

Amusing Cuss, and Maybe He Was a Real Actor Some Day.

Bryan Dunleavy, the best specimen of the tramp that has ever struck this city, was amusing a crowd of children on Webster avenue yesterday morning and Mounted Officer Dyer was sent to stop the entertainment. Dunleavy is dirty, his hair stands pompadour all around his head and his clothes are ragged.

STRUCK HIS MOTHER AND SISTER.

Young Shultz is Now in Jail Awaiting Charge.

William Shultz was arrested by Patrolmen Saul and Walsh yesterday on a warrant sworn out before Alderman Robling, of the Eleventh ward. The charge is assault and battery, and the victims were Shultz's mother and sister.

The young man also smashed the furniture in the house and was generally riotous. He will be given a hearing today before Alderman Robling.

Pill-Age.

Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills, 10 cents a dr., are planned after the most modern in medical science. They are a great improvement over the 50 years old strong dose pill formulas as a bicycle is over an ox-cart in travel. They never gripe and never fail. Sold by Matthews Bros.—40 doses, 10 cents.

AT THE MERCY OF A BRUTE.

Farmer's Desperate Encounter with a Mad Dog.

West Chester, Pa., Nov. 16.—Alfred G. Wilson, a middle-aged man, of Locksley, had a desperate encounter with a mad dog yesterday morning, and as a result he will be sent immediately to the Pasteur Institute, in New York, for treatment. He was attracted to the chicken yard by the noise of his fowls, and as he entered the enclosure the dog leaped upon him and caught him by the wrist. He managed to shake the animal off, after a terrible struggle, but it leaped upon him a second time, sinking its teeth in his shoulder. About this time assistance arrived, and the maddened animal was beaten off and killed.

The flesh on Mr. Wilson's shoulder and arm was badly torn and lacerated. Many dogs in the neighborhood were slaughtered today, as it was feared they had been bitten by the frenzied dog.

BAD CHECKS HIS CAPITAL.

A Gib-Tongued Stranger Operates Amongst Hotel Keepers.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Nov. 16.—A story of a suave stranger and a check game has just leaked out, in which well-known hotel-keepers were badly bitten. The stranger was a fine-looking, well-dressed man, and he first worked his scheme on the proprietor of Bach Riverside hotel, just above Bushkill. The proprietor cashed checks to the amount of $154. The checks came back marked "No good."

At Palmer's High Falls house the suave gentleman managed to secure $65. Two or three other landlords were touched for similar amounts.

The fact that Detective Robert Pinkerton arrived in Stroudsburg on Saturday night, ostensibly on a hunting trip in Pike county, leads to the belief that the well-dressed man is wanted in other cities for similar practices.

PAGUE DIVORCE SUIT.

Proceedings Are Instituted Against the Notorious Lieutenant.

Lancaster, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Susan George Pague today instituted divorce proceedings against her husband, Lieutenant Samuel Pague, who gained some notoriety a few years ago at Fort Sheridan, Chicago, when he, a lieutenant of the Fifteenth Infantry, shot at the colonel of his regiment. Pague for this court martial and dismissed from the army.

His wife charges him with non-support, intoxication, careless of the payment of his debts, and while intoxicated, the using of firearms in a reckless manner in her presence. She also charges him with threatening to break her wrists.

No More Foot Ball at Girard.

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—The students at Girard college were today forbidden to play football in the future. The order was issued by President Pettoroff, and is the result of one of the boys having his leg broken last Saturday during a practice game. There has been great interest manifested in the game by the 1,500 students, and they feel much disappointed at the stopping of the game.

Death of Ex-Judge Hepburn.

Carlisle, Nov. 16.—Samuel Hepburn, LL. D., ex-judge of the Ninth Judicial district, died last night, aged 90 years. He was appointed judge of Cumberland and Perry counties by Governor Porter in 1880, being then only 33 years old, and the youngest judge in Pennsylvania.

Penalty for Taking Life.

Easton, Pa., Nov. 16.—Having pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree for killing Stephen Gaggar, Andrew Smayda was sentenced to one year imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary.

Pennsylvania Pensions.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The following Pennsylvania pensions have been issued: Original—William Booth, Scranton.

POSTMASTER BOGERT MARRIED.

His Bride Was Miss Sarah E. Bates, of Washington, D. C.

In St. Stephen's parish house, Wilkes-Barre, E. P. Bogert, postmaster of that city and editor of the Wilkes-Barre Leader, was married at noon Monday. His bride was Miss Sarah E. Bates, of Washington, D. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bates, of Wilkes-Barre. The ceremony was attended by her father, Mr. Bates, and her cousin, Miss Charlotte Yeoman, of Sunbury, W. E. Woodruff, city editor of the Leader, was groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Bogert left for a wedding trip through the northern part of New York state, a portion of Canada, and possibly as far west as Chicago, and touching the southern tier, Wheeling, W. Va., and Washington on the return.

SMOOTH-FACED YOUNG MAN.

Tried to Pass a Forged Check in Mitchell's Restaurant.

A smooth-faced young man succeeded in getting a meal for nothing last evening at Mitchell's restaurant, on Washington avenue, and incidentally was caught in an attempt to pass a forged check for $18 on J. J. Nealls, the Oxford court liverrman.

THE RESULT OF A FIGHT.

The Cause That Led to It—Two Eyes Blackened, the Principals Shake Hands and Are Now Friends Again. The Names of the Principals Withheld.

A dispute arose between two young men in regard to a suit of clothing purchased at the great sale which is now going on at the Chicago Combination Clothing Company, 21 Washington avenue. One young man bought a suit for $6.55, which he put on after exhibiting himself. A dispute arose in regard to the price paid, one claimed that such a suit could not possibly be bought for less than $18.00, while the other contended he had paid $6.55.

After a good deal of hot words, blows were exchanged and wagers were made, the entire party repaired to the Chicago Clothing Company store, and after ascertaining that the price was only $6.55 they all expressed surprise. The young men, after damaging one another's faces, shook hands and made up friends. For reasons best known we will not publish their names. We must, however, congratulate the Chicago Clothing Company for giving such values, during this great sale of theirs, that is the common talk of everybody. If you used any clothing be quick while this sale is still in progress.

Motherhood.

A mother who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. The child fairly drinks in health from its mother's robust constitution before birth, and from a healthy mother's milk after.

Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity? Do you know the meaning of that word "longings," or "cravings," which beset so many women during pregnancy? There is something lacking in the mother's blood. Nature cries out and will be satisfied at all hazards.

One woman wants sour things, another wants sweets, another wants salt things, and so on. The real need all the time is to enrich the blood so as to supply nourishment for another life, and to build up the entire generative system, so that the birth may be possible and successful.

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for twenty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be fewer disappointments at birth, and they would not experience these annoying "longings."

In the following letter to Mrs. Pinkham, Mrs. Whitney demonstrates the power of the Compound in such cases. She says: "From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three, I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I made up my mind to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was soon relieved. After I was married, the doctor said I would never be able to give my full time and have a living child, as I was constitutionally weak. I had lost a baby at seven months and a half. The next time I commenced at once and continued to take your Compound through the period of pregnancy, and I said then, if I went my full time and the baby lived to be three months old, I should send a letter to you. My baby is now seven months old and is as healthy and hearty as one could wish.

"I am so thankful that I used your medicine, for it gave me the robust health to transmit to my child. I cannot express my gratitude to you; I never expected such a blessing. Praise God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and may others who are suffering do as I did and find relief, and may many homes be brightened as mine has been."—Mrs. L. Z. WHITNEY, 8 George St., E. Somerville, Mass.

Knights of Malta Initiated. Seventy-five Candidates Made Members of Anthracite Lodge.

Seventy-five candidates were last night initiated into Anthracite commandery, No. 211, Knights of Malta, by Sir George H. Pearce, of Philadelphia, grand recorder of the order. The ceremony occurred in the lodge rooms in Pines' hall.

The candidates were initiated into twelve degrees. Grand Recorder Pearce was assisted by two teams of local knights, one of which was composed of Grand Commander O. S. Ridgway, Grand Generalissimo F. H. Young, Grand Captain-General G. B. Uthman, and Grand Prelate C. O. Swartz and the other of Grand Commander W. S. Bartlett, Grand Generalissimo F. H. Young, Grand Captain-General O. A. Boemer and Grand Prelate G. B. Uthman. The initiations were through all degrees up to that of the Red Cross.

Following are the names of the officers of Anthracite lodge: Commander, W. H. Hoffman; generalissimo, O. A. Boemer; captain general, G. B. Uthman; prelate, C. O. Swartz; recorder, E. T. Bone, and treasurer, E. L. Haas.

WATER RATE PETITION. Board of Trade to Definitely Consider It One Month Hence.

The petition signed by a number of the city's large manufacturing and commercial concerns, asking the Scranton City and Water company to reduce its present rate to large consumers has not been presented to the company. It is in the possession of the board of trade, to which it was sent with the request that the board as a body join in the petition.

Not until after noon is considered by the manufacturers committee and reported to the board at the December meeting will it be delivered to the company. Whether or not the petition will be presented in case the board of trade declines to take affirmative action, is not known.
